Certificate in ESOL Skills for Life
Entry 3—Writing

Time allowed: 60 minutes.

This examination paper contains two questions. Answer both questions.

Task one

You read this in your college magazine:

Wanted—Children's stories from around the world.

Can you tell us a children's story that you heard or read when you were young?

Why not write your story
for our next magazine?

Write your story below (about 200 words).

*Plan your story by making notes of the most important points and then write a draft.
Then write the final story for the college magazine and check it carefully for mistakes.*

Task two

College International Evening

Staff and students—Come to a party to welcome our international students! Bring a friend!

Where?—The Assembly Hall

When?—Next Tuesday at 7:30pm

Bring and Show. Bring an interesting object from another country to show everyone OR bring some food to share.

Your college is having a party next week. Write a letter to a friend and tell him or her about the party. Invite your friend to the party. Give details of when and where the party is and say what object or food you are going to take. (About 120 words)
